MONDAY

ANSWER THE DAILY BOOK QUESTION.

Describe your biggest struggle with food. What's at the root of this struggle? How do you feel about this struggle?

READ DEUTERONOMY 8:1-19.

1. Before Jesus was born, the primary way God revealed Himself and His plan for the world was through the nation of Israel. (The Old Testament is the name of the portion of the Bible that records God's work in the world before Jesus was born.) God had to work to shape the Israelites into His special people who would trust and obey Him. In this passage, God reminds the Israelites what He taught them through consequences they experienced for refusing to trust Him. They have just spent 40 years living in the barren wilderness but are about to enter a land of abundance and blessing. Why did God allow the Israelites to experience hunger in the wilderness?
2. Manna was a miraculous food source that God provided daily for the Israelites in the desert. Food was scarce, but God provided all that the people needed. (Read Exodus 16 if you want to learn more about manna.) What did God want the Israelites to learn from the manna He provided? What does it mean that people do not live by bread alone, but by every word that comes from the mouth of the Lord?
3. God gave His people a land filled with physical abundance and provision. What does God want the Israelites to learn about Him and their relationship to physical abundance by doing this? What is God trying to teach you through the food, possessions, comforts, and physical strength He is either providing for you or withholding from you in this stage of your life?

BREATHE THE FOLLOWING PRAYER.

INHALE 1 Humble me and let me hunger where needed...	→	EXHALE 1 To teach me to depend on You.
INHALE 2 I do not live by bread alone...		EXHALE 2 I live by every word You speak.
INHALE 3 You provide all that I need...		EXHALE 3 I will remember Your goodness.
INHALE 4 In times of scarcity help me trust in You...		EXHALE 4 In times of abundance help me give you praise.

TUESDAY

ANSWER THE DAILY BOOK QUESTION.

What are the benefits of Fasting and Feasting? What rhythms can you cultivate into your life to better Fast and Feast?

READ ISAIAH 58:1-14 SLOWLY TWO TIMES.

1. In this passage, God commands His prophet, Isaiah, to speak to the nation of Israel. A prophet was a man that God used to speak to His people. His job was to remind the people of God's truth and call them back to obedience to His plan for their lives. God's people were living hypocritically. They were trying to put on a religious show, but it was empty of true love for God and others. One of the empty religious activities God's people were practicing was fasting. What was wrong with the way the Israelites were fasting? What does this reveal about the danger of doing religious things without genuine love for God and others?
2. Fasting involves abstaining from food to focus more fully on God. According to this passage, how should drawing closer to God change the way you see and respond to the needs of others? How might God be prompting you to care for those in need around you? Text your answer to your TEAM.
3. In verses 8 through 12, what promises does God give to those who live this kind of God-centered, others-focused life? Which of these promises encourages you most?

BREATHE THE FOLLOWING PRAYER.

INHALE 1 Teach me to seek You...	→	EXHALE 1 With more than empty religion.
INHALE 2 Give me Your heart for those around me...		EXHALE 2 Make me as sensitive to their needs as I am to my own.
INHALE 3 Show me the heavy burdens I am putting on those around me...		EXHALE 3 Make my presence lift them up rather than weigh them down.
INHALE 4 Make my life like a sunrise to those around me...		EXHALE 4 That saturates them with your love and goodness.

WEDNESDAY

ANSWER THE DAILY BOOK QUESTION.

Describe your relationship with sleep? Do you view it as a gift from God or a burden? Explain.

READ PSALM 127:1-2 SLOWLY FOUR TIMES.

1. What does this passage teach about work, protection, and rest?
2. In what areas of your life are you acting as though everything depends on you?
3. What would it look like for you to work faithfully and sleep peacefully, depending fully on God for your provision, protection, and rest?

BREATHE THE FOLLOWING PRAYER.

INHALE 1 You are my provision...	→	EXHALE 1 My efforts to provide for myself and others are fruitless unless You show up.
INHALE 2 You are my protection...		EXHALE 2 My efforts to protect myself and others are fruitless unless You show up.
INHALE 3 You give me sleep...		EXHALE 3 My efforts bring restless anxiety if I am not trusting in You.
INHALE 4 You are my Shepherd...		EXHALE 4 Help me trust that You will provide all that I need.

THURSDAY

ANSWER THE DAILY BOOK QUESTION.

Why is it important to develop a healthy sleep routine? What hurdles get in the way of you developing this routine?

READ PSALM 3 SLOWLY TWO TIMES.

1. Surrounded by enemies and circumstances beyond his control, David (the guy who wrote this song) could still sleep because he trusted God to protect him. He was able to rest because he put his confidence in the presence of God, not in the absence of trouble. What truths about God in Psalm 3 gave David faith and strength even though his circumstances were difficult and overwhelming?
2. What pressures, problems, or people are currently attacking your peace and making it difficult for you to rest? What makes it hard for you to rest when circumstances feel uncertain or out of control? Text your answer to your TEAM.
3. What is one burden you're carrying that you need to release to God so that you can rest in Him? What would it look like to continually hand that pressure, problem, or person over to Him, even if the circumstances don't immediately change?

BREATHE THE FOLLOWING PRAYER.

INHALE 1 You, LORD, are a shield around me...	→	EXHALE 1 I am safe because you are my protector and provider.
INHALE 2 You are the One who lifts my weary head...		EXHALE 2 Help me fix my eyes on You and not my situation.
INHALE 3 Make it possible for me lie down and rest...		EXHALE 3 Help me know and believe that You are with me.
INHALE 4 I will not be afraid...		EXHALE 4 Because I know my deliverance comes from You.

FRIDAY

ANSWER THE DAILY BOOK QUESTION.

Complete the “My Ideas for a Healthy Sleep Routine” table on page 112 and the “My Ideas for a Sabbath Rhythm” table on pages 113 in the book.

READ ISAIAH 25:1-8, MATTHEW 26:26-29, REVELATION 19:6-9, AND REVELATION 21:1-8.

1. We live in a world filled with suffering, loss, and death, but this is not the end of the story. God promises a day when He will destroy death, wipe away our tears, and gather His people for a great celebration feast. Jesus tells us to look forward to the day when we will celebrate with Him in His restored Kingdom. What similarities do you see between the promises and word pictures in these passages?
2. What do these passages teach you about the kind of future God is preparing for His people? What are you most looking forward to when God makes all things right?
3. How does knowing where God’s story is ultimately headed change the way you view the struggles and brokenness you are experiencing today? How can the hope of feasting with Jesus in His restored Kingdom help you live with greater peace and rest today?

BREATHE THE FOLLOWING PRAYER.

INHALE 1 You will destroy death forever...	→	EXHALE 1 Help me rest in Your promises.
INHALE 2 You will wipe away every tear...		EXHALE 2 I trust You with my earthly sadness.
INHALE 3 Jesus, You are coming again...		EXHALE 3 Help me wait for You with patient hope.
INHALE 4 I can't wait to feast with you when you make all things new...		EXHALE 4 I will rejoice in You now as I wait for Your return.
